All Smoking Tobaccos are Flavored

"Your Nose Knows"

The Encyclopaedia Britannica says about the manufacture of smoking tobacco, " . . . on the Continent and in America certain 'sauces' are employed . . . the use of the 'sauces' is to improve the flavour and burning qualities of the leaves."

Your smoke-enjoyment depends as much upon the Quality and kind of flavoring used as upon the Quality and aging of the tobacco.

Tuxedotobaccouses the purest, most wholesome and delicious of all flavorings—chocolate! That flavoring, added to the finest of carefully aged and blended burley tobacco, produces Tuxedo -the perfect tobacco-

"Your Nose Knows."

He harnesses his horses and hitches hem to his two-wheeled wagon, one orse ahead of the other, instead of abreast as we do. And the driver is generally a leader unless he has his animals so trained that he doesn't have to use reins. I've seen them ploughing when one man would lead the horses and the other would hold the plow. The plow is similar to ours, but they put a pair of wheels under the beam and hitch the horses to the axle.

The homes of the peasants are hard to describe. Its not hard to tell about them as they are, but in all justice to the French people it seems only right to make some allowance for the last four years during which they have most certainly depreciated a great deal. To begin with, there is seldom more than one entrance to the living rooms themselves, the rooms being connected on the inside like a suite. The door going in usual-. ly opens on the kitchen which is invariably dark and is stained by time and much smoke to a rich brownish I have the agency for this black. Nearly all of one side of the room is taken up by a huge fireplace and mantle. By comparison to the and to us ,who are used to roaring THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN fires, it gives off little heat or no heat THE LADIES HOME JOURNAL There may or may not be, a window THE SATURDAY EVENING POST in the room, but if there is not, the light will come in through a sort of boxed in chimney effect with a skylight at the top. If there is a stove in the room, it is a small one and Mich could never in the world be capable of producing such delicious fruits of culinary art as does the one in my
